To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing on behalf of Jennifer Everett. I would like to recommend her as a candidate for the Hall of Fame. She has made it her goal and has worked very hard so that one day she would be good enough to be inducted into the Hall of Fame.

Jennifer and I got together around 1996. When we first met, she came to a few shoots just to watch. She then got curious, so I let her try it out. It was love at first shot! Jennifer kept coming to shoots with me. She eventually bought her first gun, and she became "one of the gang." She had numerous questions about the sport. Sometimes I feel as though I taught her a little too well!

Up to this point in her shooting career, Jennifer still has questions. If we cannot figure it out together, she goes out of her way to find the answer. She is constantly reading and studying so that she can better herself. When she sets her eyes upon a goal, she does everything in her power to achieve it.

Jennifer has achieved many goals in her time of shooting. A few of her achievements are:

- Won first trophy in 2000 at Carlisle for being high lady in the singles event
- In 2003, won VTA High Overall Lady
- In 2004, won VTA High Overall Lady
- In 2005, was the first lady to break 100 in the winter league & won 22-23 yards event at the West Virginia State Shoot
- In 2006, was the West Virginia singles runner-up, won West Virginia Lady Handicap event, won as the VA State Open Lady in Handicap, and was the Pennsylvania non-resident Handicap Champion
- In 2007, West Virginia Ladies Singles, Handicap, and Doubles
- In 2008, West Virginia Ladies Singles, Handicap, and Doubles, won Pennsylvania Ladies Singles runner-up, Pennsylvania Handicap runner-up, and won as the West Virginia Ladies HAA
- In 2009, West Virginia Ladies Singles, Handicap, and Doubles, Pennsylvania Handicap runner-up, and Virginia Old Dominion Singles Lady
- In 2010, West Virginia State Ladies Singles and Doubles, West Virginia Handicap runner-up, West Virginia Ladies HAA, Virginia Old Dominion Ladies Singles and Handicap
- In 2011, West Virginia Ladies Singles, Handicap, and Doubles
- In 2012, at the West Virginia State Shoot, won in all nine events
- Has held the title as the West Virginia Lady for six consecutive years

Jennifer does not only deserve to be apart of the Hall of Fame because of her achievements, but because of her dedication to the sport!

Sincerely,

P.J.S.
